a Lesson in the University of The New Covenant

1. I have so much gold, I have so much gold that glows and it is not related to your gold Ted. It's not related to the gold of man and man's thoughts and man's ways and man's values. My gold is not a monetary index. My gold is not mammon. My gold is life. I created life. I sustain life. I am life and I come to give life to the creation of life that I created.

I died to give life to that which I created. And I come and I call now, to bring into fullness, into the maximum potential, for the uses that I designed upon each and every person to be filled, fulfilled, immaculately conceived in Me, by Me, for Me, into reality.

2. Now know that I love you and I love My men and women and boys and girls.

3. I love joy and laughter.

4. I love athletics and technology and games which exhort and exalt and utilize the talents and abilities and gifts and skills that I have so freely, freely, freely given out.

5. I want to exalt more, more, more gifts that are muted and valued little, and yet are so highly valuable in My body, and necessary for My body to operate as I designed My body to operate.

6. My body has been so narrow in its thinking, thinking, thinking—its intellectual pursuits of Me and minimizing Me, and intellectualizing Me out of who I really am and what I have really given My body to operate with.

But all of that is changing. I am changing it and I am changing it now for I am tired of so many people, that I have given so much to, that I value so highly, so deeply, so intensely, to be so devalued by others in My body.

7. I love you Ted and I appreciate you wanting to get with My body, members of My body who know Me, who seek Me, who are seriously diligent in their pursuit of Me, and desire to increase their passion for Me, desire to know My voice more, desire to write My words and live in a maximum state, a maximum use, a maximum potential realized every moment of every day—not fleetingly, not perfectionistically, but wisely—hearing My voice and knowing Me, seeing Me, seeing Me in the little people, seeing Me in the big people, seeing Me and My values in My creation and helping to bring forth, birth forth, and mature the values and the gifts that I have placed in My people of which so many have been so devalued.

8. I have so many that have been so hurt, so hurt in My body by others in My body. Slash not My body and permit not others to slash My body. Bring forth healing, healing, healing and let Me heal.

Bring forth the value systems of Me that you already know exists, that I have already given you partially, partially, so elementarily and yet foundationally foundationing, to foundation My people. I love you.

And My flags fly, My flag unfurls with My name on it as I write My name on My body and those who will come before Me and walk up to the plate, take their turn at bat, and move forth for Me.

9. I love you and I arise My Universities, My schools, My many schools and My federation of schools and My federations of federations. I move forth now and I bring forth University systems of Me and you will see, you will all see Me create things that you never dreamed of, circular circoncentricities. You will see Me bring forth designs of only Me.

10. You will see Me bring forth design technologies that allow Me to be Me in increasingly freer ways and you will participate in the revenue streams that come forth from Me, designed by Me, untainted by motives of mammon and self interest. I love you and I provide.

I am your Father and I am Me and I desire to provide so much more for My body than My body has even let Me provide. But that is changing because I am raising My strong arm, My right arm is being seen now across My hearth and many will shake and shudder and shambles will be seen in many parts of My thought-body, as My body matures and chooses to mature and exercises its choices in Me, or fails and flawingly forfeits what I have provided. I love you.

11. And in a stream My words come more and more, more and more to you and more to those who will let Me. I love you.

12. WeekWorks flies. I come and I soar and I fly with My WeekWorkables. I love you.

13. Campuses make. Land comes.

14. See Me. I am there, I am with you, I am with you now. I have laughed with you at table, I have cried with you at table, and I see and I feel and I hear, and you become. You become your choice and I love you for it. I love you and I bless you this day.

15. Enjoy Me, My sunshine, My Sonshine upon your face, upon your eyes alighting all of the opportunities for Me to interact with My body increasingly, increasingly visible, increasingly tangible, increasingly bringing forth the design that I have designed for My body. You will see and you will bless.

16. Now come forth those of you who wonder about WeekWorks.

17. Come forth, stand up, arise, the time is now, opportunity seize, history make, in your life and Mine. I love you. I love you.

18. Come forth, arise, let Me confidence you and significance you in My healing, foundationed by My hands upon your very heart. I love you. I love you.

19. Come initiate, speak, teach, and grow, and become all that I have provisioned for you.

20. Become what I have designed into you, become My desire, and in so, becoming Me. I love you and I bless you. I arise you, I significance you, I bless you, I call you to My breast, I call you to My heart, I call you to only Me and I arise you in strength. I arise you in power, I arise you this day in joy and laughter.

21. Come networks make and free My body to free My body in every sphere of your influence. I love you and your sphere grows. I love you, your sphere grows. I love you so much, your sphere grows.

22. Now come and take Me entirely to your sphere, and your spheres of spheres that increase, additional networks of spheres and spheres of networks which interconnect to deliver my delivery systems. I love you and I bless you this day.

23. I am enlarging your coast, I am enlarging your land and many lands and many coasts you will see if you adventure forth in Me.

24. Out of your boat, come, out of your comfort zones, come, come, come.

25. Come into your mapless journey with only Me as your guide. I love you and I bless you.

26. I thank you this day for valuing My words, valuing these words, placing them in your heart and coming to Me about them, coming to me, coming to Me and letting Me confirm My desire for you. I love you and I glow, I grow, you glow and you will glow more. You will grow more and you will mature mightily.

27. Come, I call you forth, I confirm this is Me, for you, this day. Evaluate, ponder, and let Me confirm, let Me confirm in the wee hours.

28. Fast, and let Me confirm. Slow, and let Me confirm, but stand not in one spot.

Initiate, move forth and come closer to Me and let Me hug you and My arms be around you. I love you this day.

Peace, peace, My peace to you.
My joy, My laughter, My healing this day.
Amen.
